

1964-07-00

AFSENDER

Henning Christiansen

MODTAGER

Tomas Schmit

FAKTA

Dokumenttype:

Brev

Omtalte personer:

Henning Christiansen

Dick Higgins

Arkivplacering:

HC Arkiv Møn

DOKUMENTINDHOLD

Festival der neuen Kunst

TRANSSKRIFTION

Dear-hallo-Tomas

For the evening:

AUDIENCE op. 19 f

make a stage for the audience in the middle of the concertroom

instruktion: a little deal-floor on the back of some chairs.

AUDIENCE op. 19 g

from the stage, changing persons from the audience has to read aloud a newspaper from the day, from its beginning to the end and during the hole concert

AUDIENCE - piece op. 19 d

place a TV behind the audience, let it work during the hole concert (without sound)

AUDIENCE PIECE op. 19 e

place a lot of ropes in the concertroom in such a way that the audience are able to climb up.

AUDIENCE PIECE OP. 19 c

CLIMB UP

place that advertisement in such a way that everybody can see it.

[2]

for the head-stage

Colour pieces opus 20 d.

Put a lot of clothes-pegs on a line, (close to each other) swing with it until all has fall off.

COLOUR PIECES opus 20 e

place some grammophones around in the concertroom. Let them play very silently during the hole concert.

for the asphalt or the stage or the concertroom:

Dick Higgins: "Danger music" for Henning Christiansen nr. 33
'have a ball-show'

Version one

this time this way:

couples will be tied up with good rope or string in different ways for

KILDER TIL
DANSK
KUNSTHISTORIE

NY CARLSBERGFONDET

instance: back to back, left leg to left leg, crossed arms and back to back, arms to feet a man's arms to a girl's leg(s) and the opposite, arms around diagonal from the pace to the nake, tied so they can juse their legs etc.
it was the best with a little jazz-ork, but maybe some car-soundhorns
played by rytmic people after small scores

..-..-..-..-..-

..-..-..-..-..-

or a grammophon with loudspeaker.

Dear-hallo-Tomas

For the evening:

AUDIENCE op. 19 f

make a stage for the audience in the middle of the concertroom.

instruktion: a little deal-floor on the back of some chairs.

AUDIENCE op. 19 g

from the stage, changing persons from the audience has to read aloud a news- the paper from the day, from it's beginning to the end and during the hole concert

AUDIENCE - piece op. 19 ~~g~~ d

place a TV behind the audience, let it work during the hole concert (without sound)

AUDIENCE PIECE op. 19 ~~g~~ e

place a lot of ropes in the concertroom in such way ~~that~~ that the audience are able to climb up.

AUDIENCE PIECE OP. 19 c

CLIMB UP

place that advertisement in such away that ~~evry~~ everybody can see it.

for the head-stage

Colour pieces opus 2o d.

Put a lot of clothes-pegs an a line,
(close to each other)

swing with it until all has fall off.

COLOUR PIECES opus 2o e

place some grammo phones around in the concertroom. Let them play very silently during the hole concert.

for the asphalt or the stage or the
concertroom:

Dick Higgins: "Danger music" for Henning
Christiansen nr. 33

' have a ball-show '

One Version One
this time in this way:

couples will be tied up with good rope
or string in different ways forinstanee:
~~xxx~~ back to back, left leg to left leg,
crossed arms and back to back, arms to feet
a mans arms to a ~~xxx~~ girls legs) and the opposite, arms around diagonal from the pace to the nake, tied so they can juse ~~xxx~~
their legs ~~a~~ etc.

it was the best with a little jazz-ork. but maybe some car-soundhorns played by rytmic
people after small scores ~~...~~

or a grammophon with loudspeaker.