ERIK SATIE

Projekt: En substansløs, "immateriel" informationsstrøm, mønstre afklædt enhver ekspressiv glans, tomme rammer som skyder sig ind over hinanden, uheroiske rokader og intet andet. Det er meget lidt, der rent kvantitativt foregår i "den rokokalske" - Hemming Christiansens første strygekvartet, og det første større værk siden Perceptive Constructions. Fire "melodier" - baseret på henholdsvis store sekunder, store tertser, kvarter og kvinter - permuteres mellem kvartetens fire instrumenter, idet afsnit hvor instrumenterne spiller "melodierne" veksler med afsnit hvor disse er på vandring mellem instrumenterne. Systemet er ganske simpelt og kan aflæses af arbejdsbøger, der er vedføjet partituret. På et punkt afviger dette system imidlertid fra de spillesystemer, komponisten tidligere har betjent sig af f.eks. i Perceptive Constructions: Der er ikke tale om et lukket, absolut system, hvorfra man kan slutte sig til værkets organisation. Det opstillede regelsæt rummer mulighed for andre rækkefølger af de enkelte led inden for storformen. Og en anden rækkefølge vil være lige så "god" som den valgte - værket vil ikke af den grund ændre karakter. Ikke noget med "variabel form" her. Snarere kan man tale om indifferent form. For mig at se er det heri, komponistens nyinding med "den rokokalske" består. Den formelle organisation bliver ikke mere som før et lidt heroisk "derfor!", men et "hvorfor ikke?". Den indifferens materialet udstråler er endegyldigt overført på selve formkonceptionen. I selve entydigheden ligger en indirekte sammensathed, som i mine øren er langt mere interessant end en rent ydre kompleksitet. Der er næsten tale om en naturlov - jo større entydighed, des større indirekte fascination.

Dick Higgins har en historie:

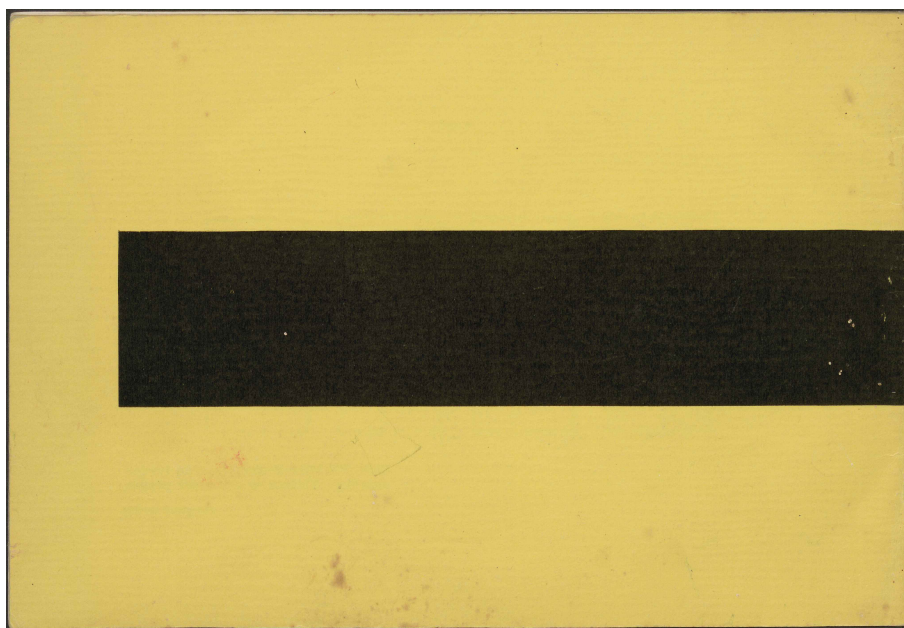

He started at the bottom, liked it, stayed there, and that's the whole story.

citat fra hans-jørgen nielsens essay-samling: Nielsen og den hvide verden.

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, page 4. The score is written in a system of five staves (treble and bass clefs). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals. A large rectangular box labeled "SPACE 15''" is present on the right side of the page, indicating a section of the score that has been removed or is a placeholder. The word "attacca" is written below the box. The page number "4" is visible in the top right corner. There are handwritten annotations: a circled "39" in the bottom left and "42 2" in the bottom right.

The image shows a handwritten musical score on aged, yellowed paper. It consists of two systems of staves. The first system has four staves, each with the instruction 'senza sord.' written above it. The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals. The second system also has four staves, with the first staff starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation continues with similar musical elements. In the bottom left corner, there is a circled number '39'. In the bottom right corner, there is a handwritten '49' followed by a small symbol that looks like a stylized 'g' or a similar character.

The image shows a handwritten musical score on aged, yellowed paper. The score is divided into two systems. The first system consists of four staves, each beginning with the instruction 'con sord.' (concerto sordano). The notation includes treble and bass clefs, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and various note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The second system also consists of four staves, continuing the musical notation. Handwritten numbers are present: '7' in the top left corner, '4' in the top right corner, '39' circled in the bottom left corner, and '49' in the bottom right corner. The paper shows signs of age, including slight discoloration and a vertical crease down the center.
