Leonardo Music Journal – “Ghosts and Monsters”

Volume 8 in the Leonardo Music Journal Compact Disc series

You hereby grant to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and the International Society for Arts, Sciences and Technology (ISAST) a non-exclusive, world-wide license to distribute the Composition in Compact Disc format. While the compilation will be copyrighted in ISAST's name as a collective work, you will retain the copyright and all other rights in the Composition. You also grant a non-exclusive right to license performance of the Composition, by means of radio or television, in connection with promoting sales of the Compact Disc. Additionally, you grant a non-exclusive right to collect statutory license fees accruing with respect to the Composition, both under the U.S. Copyright Act Sections 115, 116 and ITS, and under any other provision of U.S. or foreign law. If this Composition has (in part or in whole) been previously published or contains material copyrighted to a third party, you have enclosed a copy of any necessary permissions or licenses obtained for your use of any such material. You agree to indemnify us against any claim or action alleging facts that, if true, constitute a breach of this warranty. Your indemnity will cover our losses, legal fees and expenses, as well as any damages, profits or settlement amounts we may pay.

If the foregoing accurately states our understanding, please sign both copies of this letter and return them to us. We will countersign them, making this a binding contract, and return one to you.
